NATIONAL ACADEMY OF COASTAL POLICING (NACP) OKHA

JOINING INSTRUCTIONS

MARINE POLICE FOUNDATION COURSE

1. INTRODUCTION:

Post 26/11 terrorist action in Mumbai, as per policy adopted by Govt. of India on augmentation of the coastal security, Marine Police Stations have been opened all along the coastal area by the coastal states. The central Government had provided funds and equipments for these Marine Police stations of the states. However these police stations could not become effective in policing the coastal area due to lack of proper training. The National Academy of coastal Police is opened to address this issue so that coastal areas are effectively policed in all conditions.

National Academy for Coastal Police will primarily address the training needs of Marine Police of the coastal states. However in due course academy may shoulder responsibility to train persons of other set ups that operate in Marine Environment and maintain vessels including private sector establishment if assigned by the MHA.
