D.O. No. MCIT/DIT/NIC/DCWS/Guidelines/05
Dated: June 25, 2010

Subject: Status on compliance to the Guidelines for Indian Government Websites.

Dear Secretary,

Please refer to this Office D.O. No. R-4526/Secy(DIT)/09 dated 17.9.2009 on the above subject.

2. The National Informatics Centre has published the "Guidelines for the Indian Government Websites (GIGW)". Department of Administrative Reforms and Public Grievances (DARPG) has adopted these guidelines. Government has also taken a conscious decision that all Government websites shall comply with the GIGW.

3. Please take necessary action to make all websites under your ministry/department compliant with the above guidelines. Please also send the current status of all websites under your purview in the enclosed proforma.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

K.M. Chandrasekhar

Dated: July 05, 2010

Subject: Compliance to the Guidelines for Indian Government Websites.

Dear Sir,

Please refer to communication from Cabinet Secretary (D.O.No. MCIT/DIT/NIC/DCWS/Guidelines/05 dated 25th June 2010) regarding compliance to the Guidelines for Indian Government Websites (GIGW).

NIC has taken following initiatives to extend necessary support to facilitate Ministries and Departments for making their websites compliant with the GIGW:

1. A Central team of web technology professionals has been constituted by NIC/NICSI for providing website design and development (compliant to GIGW) services to Government Ministries and Departments.
2. NICSI has also empanelled agencies having competency and knowledge to support website design and development in compliance to the GIGW to extend the services to Ministries/Department and other Government Organizations as well.
3. NIC has also empanelled an agency to impart knowhow on design, development and management aspects of websites in compliant with the guidelines.

You may avail these services to make your websites GIGW compliant and also get your officers trained for better management of the websites.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(B. K. Gairola)
