Subject: Matter raised during Zero Hour in Lok Sabha on 18.7.2018 by Shri Laxman Giluwa, Hon'ble Member of Parliament regarding trafficking of girls through placement agencies on the pretext of job.

Sir,

Reference is invited to the matter raised during Zero Hour in Lok Sabha on 18.7.2018 by Shri Laxman Giluwa, Hon'ble Member of Parliament regarding trafficking of girls of rural areas, particularly from Jharkhand to Metropolitan cities of the country through placement agencies for flesh trade on the pretext of job. A copy of the extract is enclosed.

2. The Hon'ble Member of Parliament has mentioned that there are about 1500 placement agencies registered in the country and more than 15000 are working illegally, which are involved in such type of human trafficking and has requested to enquire/identify such placement agencies and gangs through intelligence and take stern action against them.

3. In view of the above, it is requested that the suggestions/issue raised by the Hon'ble MP may be taken note of and appropriate action may also be taken under intimation to this Ministry.

Yours sincerely,

Arun Sobti
